INVESTIGATION:

R/d received the above investigation via normal CMO handout procedures.

R/d left a message on the victim's phone on 22APR12 at 1835hrs but did not receive a response.

R/d sent a Victim Letter on 22APR12 but has not received a response.

R/d called the victim's phone on 26APR12 at 2058hrs and a message related that the victim's phone was not accepting calls.

R/d visited the scene and verified that there are no PODS or surveillance cameras on the surrounding buildings which may have captured the incident.

R/d verified that the victim's vehicle was reported as being stolen in the Hot Desk on 21APR12.

On 28APR12 at 1750hrs, R/d made contact with the victim. P.O. Rita MARTINEZ #9926 acted as a translator. The victim related that he left his cousin's house on 43rd and California and was traveling W/B on 47th st. approaching Kedzie when a smaller light grey vehicle cut him off in traffic bringing his vehicle to a stop. The victim related that he was alone in his vehicle at this time. He related that two M/4's, 25-28y.o., exit the small grey car and approach his vehicle. The offenders related that they were the police and they pulled him from his vehicle. The offenders asked the victim where the drugs and money were at and he related that he had none. The offenders make the victim turn away from them and then pat him down. The victim related that the offenders spoke both English and Spanish. The offenders took his wallet out and took between $200-$300.00u.s.c. from the wallet and then returned the wallet to him. The offenders took the victim's company owned Nextel phone (no tracking software) and told him not to turn around. He related that one of the offenders entered his vehicle and the other re-entered the small grey car and they drove off. The victim related that they made a u-turn and proceeded E/B on [REDACTED] until he could no longer see the vehicles.

The victim described the offenders as being M/4's 25-28y.o. with black zip up sweatshirts. He related that they were both carrying flashlights. He related that he did not see anything that said "Police" on the offenders and did not see anything which stated "Police" on the offender's vehicle. The victim related that the offender's vehicle did not have any flashing lights and that there was nothing distinctive about it.

The victim related that he will NOT be able to identify the offenders because it happened so quickly and they made him turn away from them.

On 28APR12 at 1812hrs, R/d faxed a copy of the report to I.A.D.

R/d received information from Det. Maxson in the Central Bureau that a subject by the name of ?[REDACTED]? (Ph# [REDACTED]) walked into the 011th district and reported that the vehicle that he had purchased from a guy named ?Norman? at [REDACTED] was stolen. Det. Maxson related that the victim's vehicle was the vehicle that ?Herman? had purchased. R/d received information that the victim's vehicle was located in a locked garage at [REDACTED]

R/d attempted to make contact with [REDACTED] at the above number with negative results on 26APR12 at 1830hrs. R/d left a message but has not received a response.

R/d received a supplemental report which stated that [REDACTED] who resides at [REDACTED] with a phone number of [REDACTED] walked into the 011th district station and stated that he bought the above vehicle on 21APR12 2012 at the location of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] phone number ([REDACTED]) who had original title and keys for $600.00u.s.c. [REDACTED] then called Herman's towing Service Co. and talked to [REDACTED] and sold the black Chevy Tahoe to him for $800.00u.s.c. On today's date 23APR12 [REDACTED] contacted [REDACTED] and told him he wanted his $800.00u.s.c. back because he found out that the vehicle was stolen and that the vehicle was at a body shop located at [REDACTED] But is closed and the opened in the morning. R/o contacted Central Division Det. Maxson #20990 who stated that they would continue their investigation in the morning and to leave the vehicle.

R/d went to the address of [REDACTED] and discovered this address to be the parking lot of the 010th district. A search for the victim's vehicle came up negative.

On 04MAY12, R/d received a call from Det. Maxson in the Central Bureau stating that officers from the 14th district had discovered the victim's vehicle to be parked at [REDACTED]. R/d drove up to [REDACTED] and met with the recovering officers. R/d observed the victim's vehicle to be sitting on the street at this address. The officers had the title from the vehicle and the keys to the victim's vehicle.

R/d recovered the title and observed the name of [REDACTED] to be listed on the title as being the owner of the vehicle.

R/d reviewed the 014th district officers Supplemental Vehicle Recovery report which stated that R/o's while touring the area observed the above listed vehicle parked at approx. [REDACTED] without license plates. R/o's discovered through running the V.I.N. through the PDT and via O.E.M.C. that the vehicle had been taken in a robbery. While investigating the vehicle an unidentified resident of 1806 N. Sawyer related to R/o's Reyes that men from the Auto Shop that vehicle is parked in front of pushed the vehicle out onto the street. R/o Reyes spoke with the shop owner [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED] related to R/O REYES that the vehicle was brought in by a tow truck driver to be repaired. [REDACTED] related that he was informed by the owner that the vehicle was stolen and that he should push the vehicle out onto the street so that is what he (Roman) did.

R/d called the victim and had P.O. Reyes #15014 notify the victim that his vehicle was being towed to [REDACTED] and that he could pick it up on 05MAY12. The officers ordered an E.T. and ordered the tow. The key to the victim's vehicle went with the tow report.

On 05MAY12, R/d contacted the victim and confirmed that he had picked up his vehicle from [REDACTED] and that he still had possession of the original title.

On 04MAY12, R/d spoke to [REDACTED] who related that he is the owner of T and L Auto Rebuilt located at [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]). He related that a subject by the name of [REDACTED] who works for Herman Towing brought the vehicle to his shop for repairs on 23APR12. He related that [REDACTED] provided him with the title and the keys to the vehicle as proof that he [REDACTED] owned the vehicle. He related that he received a call from [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] towing who informed him that the vehicle was stolen and to discontinue any work on the vehicle and push it out onto the street. [REDACTED] related that he pushed it onto the street and left the vehicle alone. [REDACTED] related that he provided P.O. Reyes with the title and keys to the vehicle.

Det. Vivas #21021 made contact with [REDACTED] on 10MAY12 at 1805hrs. He related that he drives a tow truck part time and was contacted by a subject who identified himself as [REDACTED] on 21APR12. [REDACTED] called him from the telephone number of [REDACTED] and related that he had a Chevy Tahoe for sale. [REDACTED] agreed to meet [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] where he met [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] related that [REDACTED] was doing most of the negotiating on the price of the car and it was finally agreed that [REDACTED] would buy the car for the price of $600.00u.s.c. because the vehicle had a bad motor. [REDACTED] produced a D.L. and provided [REDACTED] with the vehicle's title and key. [REDACTED] then paid the $600.00u.s.c. and towed the vehicle away. [REDACTED] related that he then sold the vehicle to [REDACTED] who owns Herman's Towing for $800.00u.s.c. making a quick $200 profit. [REDACTED] related that [REDACTED] contacted him a couple of days later and stated that he wanted his money back because he found out the vehicle was stolen. [REDACTED] related that he then went into the 011th district and reported that he had purchased a stolen vehicle. [REDACTED] related that he paid [REDACTED] back the $800.00u.s.c. he received from the sale of the victim's vehicle.

On 10MAY12 at 1915hrs. R/d attempted to reach [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] which is the telephone number provided by [REDACTED] as being the number they called him from to sell him the vehicle. A message stated that the number is not in service.

A search of CPD databases revealed a [REDACTED] IR# [REDACTED] with an address of [REDACTED]. This matches the name and address of the person who is on the title which was presented to [REDACTED] during the sale of the vehicle belonging to [REDACTED] (victim of agg. Hijacking)

On 10MAY12, R/d met with [REDACTED] at his residence and presented him with a photo spread advisory (in Spanish) which he read and signed. R/d then presented him with a photo array and he identified [REDACTED] with a certainty of 80% as being the person who he met on 21APR12 at [REDACTED] who presented him with a title and keys for a black Chevy Tahoe VIN# [REDACTED] claiming the vehicle belonged to her. He related that if he were to see her in person he would be 100% certain. She accepted $600.00u.s.c. from [REDACTED] for the sale of the vehicle. For complete details refer to R/d's PROGRESS LINEUP SUPP. REPORT.

[REDACTED] related to R/d that he would be willing to view a lineup and would be willing to cooperate fully in this investigation.

Although the victim spoke pretty good English, the victim's son [REDACTED] acted as a translator to assist his father. [REDACTED] related that on 21APR12 [REDACTED] started calling his phone at approximately 1030hrs stating that she had a vehicle for sale. [REDACTED] related that [REDACTED] called his phone approximately eight times before he finally met with them [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] at between 1830-1900hrs. He related that upon arrival he met with both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Norman. He related that [REDACTED] did most of the talking and negotiating the price of the vehicle. He related that [REDACTED] produced and provided him with the keys and title to the vehicle and accepted the $600.00u.s.c. He related that [REDACTED] spoke Spanish, but not fluently. She also spoke English. He described [REDACTED] as being an M/2/ approx. 27-30, skinny, 5'0"-5'4". He also related that [REDACTED] told him he lived in Palatine, Illinois.

R/d's attempted to identify [REDACTED] with negative results.

On 12MAY12, R/d along with Det. Barrientos #20921 went to the victim's residence to confirm that he did not know [REDACTED] IR# [REDACTED] and that he did not give her permission to sell his vehicle. Det. Barrientos #20921 acted as a translator. R/d showed the victim a photo of [REDACTED] and he stated, "That's the girl." At this time the victim related that how he had previously related that crime occurred was not the whole truth. The victim related that he was driving S/B down [REDACTED] when he observed [REDACTED] to be standing on the street. He related that he stopped "To talk to her" and he allowed her to enter his vehicle. He related that he parked his vehicle on 47th street just East of Kedzie and he and [REDACTED] began talking. He related that he was trying to get [REDACTED] back to his apartment so that they might have sex. He related that [REDACTED] made a phone call at some point during the conversation and that a short time later the two offenders arrived and committed the robbery as reported in the G.O.C.R. He related that he observed [REDACTED] to run from his vehicle and then jump into the vehicle that the offenders arrived in before they fled from the scene in his car. The victim related that he has his original title and doesn't know anything about how she may have created another title for his car. The victim related that he did not tell R/d about the girl being in his car because he was embarrassed.

The victim related that he fears that the offenders may come to his house now. The victim related that he recovered his vehicle from the tow lot and is taking it to a mechanic for needed repairs. He related that he does not wish to pursue this case any further and would not be willing cooperate any further in the investigation. R/d presented the victim with a refusal to prosecute (in Spanish) which he read and then signed. R/d inventoried the Refusal to Prosecute under # [REDACTED]

R/d is respectfully requesting that this case be EXCEPTIONALLY CLEARED CLOSED (VICTIM'S REFUSAL TO PROSECUTE).
